Meeting of the Citizens Interested in the Paving Tax—Death of a Child. News, Personal and Brief, of Manchester.

Manchester Bureau Richmond Times, 1115 E. Main Street, Beattie Block.

A heavy brass lamp, suspended from the ceiling in the store of Mr. Thomas A. Nance, No. 229 Hull Street, fell last night about 10 o'clock, causing considerable excitement, but little damage. The heat from the lamp was thought to have caused the book to give away causing the accident. The lamp was thrown from the store into the street, thus preventing further damage.

James Williamson, the infant son of J. Archer and Ella M. Williamson, died last night at the home of his parents, No. 1566 McDonough Street. The child was only nine months of age. Funeral arrangements will be announced later.

NEGRO ARRESTED.

Charles Matthews, a bad negro, was arrested yesterday morning on Cowardin Avenue by Captain Lipscomb. Matthews is charged with having assaulted Mr. Cook, a truck driver living near the city, in Chesterfield county. Yesterday morning as Mr. Cook was driving into town from his farm he met Matthews in the road. He asked Mr. Cook to let him ride to town, which Mr. Cook refused, saying he had a load. The negro became ugly and threw several rocks into Mr. Cook's wagon, but fortunately he was not struck. Matthews says he is from New York, but he is recognized here as a Petersburg negro. He was locked up and will be given a trial to-day.

Major Turner, of New York, is in the city, looking into the business of the Manchester Light, Heat and Power Company, in which he is largely interested. He expressed himself as well pleased with the progress of the construction of the plant, and stated that he thought from present indications they would be supplying gas by the first of August.

The warrant charges Henshaw with assault, abuse and threatening to take her life. Both parties are well known in Manchester. The case will be heard this morning in "Squire Cheatham's Court."

A BURGLAR CAUGHT.

Negro Who Entered House of W. B. Pizzini is Arrested.

Joe Williams, a negro man, was arrested yesterday morning on the charge of burglarizing the house of Mr. W. B. Pizzini, and is now locked up at the First Police Station.

Wednesday night Detective Tomlinson got a message from Weinstein, pawnbroker, that he had in his possession goods corresponding to the description of the stolen articles.

They were six solid silver table spoons, which Sergeant Tomlinson carried to Mr. Pizzini, who at once identified them. Mr. Weinstein also identified the negro at the First Station yesterday morning.

Shortly after 5 o'clock yesterday a small party went to the First Police Station by Mr. Emanuel Stern, gave the information that the negro was then in Mr. Stern's office, No. 1250 East Main Street, attempting to pawn a set of silver tea-spoons. Officer P. M. Craft was immediately sent after the negro, who had, however, meantime, gotten wind of the affair, and took to his heels, the police officer following closely after him.

The negro was chased down Main to Seventeenth Street, through alley to Cary Street, thence to Fifteenth, down Pittman to Dock, up through the Southern Railway yards to the branch of the canal between the Danville depot and the Haxall mills. Indignant, the negro dived into the water
